- The schedule for next summer is not set. However, there will be activities scheduled every Sunday throughout the summer. Important for parents early is the Mfuge date. Mfuge is a mission camp in which students go to serve others in a community that is far from there own. The experience is life changing, as students see needs from a different perspective and are challenged to meet those needs. The event requires planning which will begin in September. If you have more questions, contact Nate Hogan The planned location this year is Cumberland University in Kentucky.
